

Distance is 4.50 inches

Instructions For Installing Offset Rings:

Note indicating holes on bottom side. They must be located as shown to orient the rings in the correct locations. The distance between the faces must be 4.50 inches. This location yields approximately 20 MOA of additional elevation for long range shooting.